News from the Suffolk Agricultural Association

February 2014

Explore... Discover... Taste... Enjoy

Is the theme for this year's Suffolk Show on May 28 & 29.

Every day brings something new in the Suffolk Show office. Among the many entertainments, tradestands and displays already booked is our new and very own Farm Discovery Zone. Formerly Farminanglia this large area lets you discover all about every part of farming. Cook with grains, sit on a tractor, milk a cow, stroke a sheep, watch eggs hatching, and hold a chick.

It's so much more than a day out on a farm; it is all of Suffolk in one place! Don't forget 14s and under go free! Read more.

Look out for the Association's page in Saturday's (February 15) EADT for more Show news.

Bill's Show Stoppers...

More than 42 food tradestands with delicious tasty treats have confirmed their places in the Adnams Food and Drink Experience... 70 other new tradestands have requested a site...an enormous T-Rex animatronics dinosaur will be out to entertain visitors on Thursday May 29.

"Around the Town" is the theme for the flower arrangement competition. Do it with flowers at the Show and download an entry form here.

The 2014 Livestock and Equine Schedule is eagerly expected next week. There are more than 700 classes including two new Olympia Direct Qualifiers and the debut of the Retained Racehorse Challenge for thoroughbreds that have raced.

URGENT HELP NEEDED

Suffolk Young Farmers Clubs support for Somerset Farmers

Trinity Park is a collection point for an appeal launched by kind-hearted SYFC to support fellow farmers in flood-stricken Somerset.

The SYFC is seeking donations of hay, straw, haylage, silage, feed and cake – small bales/bags, if possible, to support the smaller farmers and enable them to continue to manage their livestock and carry on as productively as possible. Deliveries will be co-ordinated to the collection points via the Suffolk Young Farmers office, so please contact them, not the SAA, on 01473 785547 or office@suffolkyfc.com.

If you would like to make a financial donation visit:
