Polo – It's Suffolk's big summer social occasion

Have you booked your tickets?

Children aged 14 and under come free!

Sunday June 29 is your chance experience a unique and wonderful family day out, packed with thrilling action and entertainment in a relaxed atmosphere.

Teams from England and Wales will line up for the big home International match as the Hopkins International Polo returns to Trinity Park. Young teams from Stowe School and Trinity Park as well as the South American Patrons teams including Las Marias will keep up the pace on the pitch in Suffolk's big social summer event. You and your family should be there too!

There are bars, fresh food outlets, tradestands, entertainments for the young and even a pianist to entertain at the end of the day.

Racing Camels

Joseph's Amazing Racing Camels run at nearly 20 mph and will be charging down the pitch between matches. Trained for between 6-12 months, the camels weigh about 600kgs and love a tasty treat of oats! Watch the jockeys hang on as they head for the finish line. It's hilarious!

For the first time in Suffolk we bring you the spectacle of Camel Racing – you have to see it!

You can enjoy the Polo at a budget that is right for you

If you want to bring the family for a special treat, celebrate with a group of upto 10 friends then a pitchside gazebo with table and chairs for £500 makes for a great private party location but with the big social feel. Buy Tickets

Pitchside Gazebos

You can bring in your own picnic and drinks or chose from one of Trinity Park Events' special butler-served hampers filled with delicious goodies. Click here for menus and call Christine Bond on 01473 707121 to discuss.

VIP Hospitality Lounge

For corporate entertaining and the full works – champagne reception, three course lunch, afternoon tea and access to the pitchside gardens - the Ipswich Audi and Ipswich Volkswagen VIP Hospitality Lounge offers the perfect option to be part of the action at £120 per head on tables of 10.
